Congratulations to you all for the work you have put in during this dry spell.

Just a comment - I see so much produce going to waste including blackberries. Rhubarb always grows well. I am hardly a head chef but I can prepare blackberry and rhubarb crumble. Cooking time 25 minutes. Goes well, hot or cold, with cream and custard.

If you don't have blackberries then this is the ideal time to go round the hedgerows and help yourself.

There are so many other simple and lovely items you can prepare. Runner or french beans can form the basis of a good salad; with feta cheese, tomatoes, lettuce, salad potatoes, beetroot. Four people can eat well without great expense

It's that time of year again

The time is coming to decide if you are going to continue renting your allotment(s)

We currently have three large plots and two small plots which will become vacant on or around 1st October.

...you know anyone who wants to apply, or more allotments, then visit the site.

With food shortages - not just around the corner but here with us now - renting a plot would seem to be a wise move.
